Subject: Three-Day Period of Prayer, Reflection, Gratitude and Hope

Dear Members, Supporters, and Friends of SocioAfrica and SocioAsia,

Socio Technologies Limited, through SocioAfrica and SocioAsia, respectfully invites members and supporters who wish to participate to observe the next three days as a period of prayer, reflection, gratitude, and hope.

During this period, Muslim members may dedicate time to Islamic prayers, supplications, and remembrance of God, while Christian members may dedicate time to prayer and reflection upon the Psalms, according to their respective faith traditions.

Our intention is to encourage a spirit of peace, unity, compassion, and hope among our members and communities.

We encourage participants to pray and reflect on matters including:

- Peace and unity across Africa, Asia, and the wider world.
- The wellbeing, safety, and prosperity of families and communities.
- Wisdom and compassion in public and community leadership.

- Social and economic development.
- Opportunities, education, and a better future for young people.
- Peaceful coexistence among people of different religions, cultures, and backgrounds.
- Innovation, cooperation, and human development.
- A future in which communities can work together toward greater prosperity and dignity.

Socio Technologies Limited recognizes and respects the diversity of religious beliefs among our members. Participation is voluntary, and every participant is encouraged to observe their own faith sincerely and respectfully.

Let these three days serve as a reminder that despite our different backgrounds and traditions, we can share common hopes for peace, prosperity, justice, development, compassion, and a better future for humanity.

We encourage everyone participating to approach these three days with sincerity, respect, kindness, and a spirit of unity.

Three days of prayer.

Three days of reflection.

Three days of hope.

One shared commitment to peace and human development.

May these days bring renewed hope, wisdom, strength, and compassion to all who participate.

Signed,
